Kids Guard

They are the most delicate and most valuable link in the chain: our children. In a world of conflicts and violence, a world of threats and pressures, it is vital to protect their lives and their innocence. Children should not be aware of the reasons they are being protected. Children should trust their companions as they trust their parents.

Property and Assets Protection

The asset protection service offered by P-Guards provides support in all sectors. Our guard service provides optimum security for office blocks, shopping centres etc. We mainly provide security services for buildings, industrial areas, car parks, events and hotels. P-Guards will be happy to provide you with advice and will work with you to put together a complete security solution of the highest quality.

They work discreetly in the background, but are still often part of the action – the bodyguards of the security firm P-Guards. The P-Guards bodyguards are active on a worldwide basis and accompany VIPs in planes and helicopters in order to ensure seamless protection.

P-Guards has earned itself an immaculate reputation over the past years, so that personalities such as Jean-Claude Van Damme, Nicolas Cage, Sylvester Stallone, members of the Saudi-Arabian monarchy or successful soccer teams such as the Italian National Team or FC Bayern all belong to their broad range of clients.
